To whom it may concern

Jeff Lewis was recommended by the Institute of Export & International Trade to facilitate a training course, on our premises, in relation to Export Documentation & Incoterms 2010.

We found his level of knowledge and expertise outstanding, with a natural ability of bringing the subject to life via examples and experiences he had encountered.

His preparation and dedication to supplying a well rounded informative course was outstanding, with very concise and helpful handouts.

We would not hesitate recommending Jeff as he is an excellent trainer who will deliver exactly what you are looking for.

Yours faithfully,

Pamela Marshall
